

U.S. Consulate General Librarian at the American Corner (26/02/2010)

Dear All,

We are pleased to announce that a reference librarian of the U.S. Consulate General in Hong Kong will be present at the American Corner on Wednesday March 3 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. You are welcome to visit the Corner and ask the librarian questions on the various aspects of the United States of America. *

The librarian will also bring along 20 copies of “E Journal USA – Campus Connection” as gifts to American Corner visitors.

~ About the book ~

A globalized economy makes business and employment spill across national boundaries, so an education abroad is likely to make a young person better prepared for the world's future. Almost double the numbers of students travel abroad for an education today as compared with 20 years ago. Campus Connections examines the international study experience and its influence on individual growth.

All are welcome!

*Please note that inquiries on nonimmigrant and immigrant visa matters can only be answered by the Consulate's Visa Information Unit. Please check http://hongkong.usconsulate.gov/visa_inquiries.html for details.

Regards,
UM Library
