

Launching of the Library's New Homepage (02/01/2006)

We are pleased to announce that the Library's homepage (<http://library.umac.mo>) has been revamped and the new one launched. You will see that, compared with the old homepage, the new one is less cluttered, sharper in its appearance and more user-friendly. Useful search buttons such as the Library Catalog, Quick Links (to useful references like Britannica Online, Oxford English Dictionary) are now placed in more prominent spots.

All of you are welcome to visit and to explore the new homepage and please let us know of your feedbacks by emailing lib_suggestion@umac.mo.
