

An Information Literacy Training Program -- Research@UM Library (27/10/2008)

Dear All,

Do you have any problems while doing your research? -- Not able to get the information that you want? Not familiar with citation style? No confidence to use your data sources? If so, "Research@UM Library", an information literacy training program organized by the Library, might help you to solve these problems.

This training program is planned to equip the participants with the abilities to locate, evaluate, and use effectively the needed information from the Library's resources. Please refer to the following schedule for details.

"Research@UM Library" Information Literacy Training
Date: 5, 6 and 8 November, 2008 (Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday)
Time: 16:00 to 17:30
Venue: B.I. Room(RC03) of the Library
Contents
1. Research Process
2. Exploring Library Resources (e-resources, Dissertations & Theses, MetaFind)
3. Evaluation on sources (JCR, SSCI, Ulrichsweb)
4. Citation Styles (APA / MLA)
5. RefWorks and Endnote
6. Outreaching Services (DDS, ILL)
Prof. Kim Hughes Wilhelm, Director of English Language Centre (ELC), is invited to lecture for the first part on Nov. 5-6 while others will be conducted by the Library staff.
Each participated student will get one Smart Point.
Come and Join us!

Please select any one of the above-mentioned days to attend. While this program is primarily aimed at our students, staff members are also welcome to enroll (subject to availability of places).
