

Library Users' Manual (2008 edition)

Dear All,

Happy New Year! To those who have just joined University of Macau, on behalf of the University Library, a very warm welcome.

We are pleased to inform you that the University Library has just published the 2008 edition of the Library Users' Manual. This manual is a brief overview of the Library services and facilities, and should be useful in assisting our users to use the Library in a more effective way.

Please check out the following link to access this Manual --
