

Five staff of the UM Library elected to be key members of IFLA Professional Committees (2019/05/09)

Dear All,

Recently, the University of Macau Library has received letters from IFLA Headquarters that Dr. Wu Jianzhong, Mr. Leung Tak Hoi, Mr. Lei Chong Meng and Mr. Hoi Wai Tat become the standing committee members of the Library Buildings and Equipment Section, the Preservation and conservation Section, the Knowledge Management Section, and Asia and Ocean Section respectively; Ms. Pun Nga Ian becomes a corresponding member of the Cataloging Section and member of the 2019 IFLA Athens Annual Meeting Cataloging Forum preparatory Committee.

IFLA is the most authoritative and influential non-governmental professional international organization in the library world. The organization has 44 professional or regional special committees. IFLA conducts elections every two years, and the term of service of this election is from 2019 to 2023. So far the University of Macau has five staff serve on the various professional committees of IFLA.

Regards,
UM Library
