

Library Activity: Award Ceremony of the “Knowing Japan Through Reading” Essay Contest (Macau Preliminary Contest) (2019/11/08)

“Knowing Japan Through Reading” Essay Contest 2019 (Macau Preliminary Contest) has been successfully concluded and many students participated. In order to thank these students for their participation and as an encouragement, an award ceremony was held at the Reading Garden of the University of Macau Library on November 6, 2019. Students have been awarded with first prize, second prize and merit prize. The event was hosted by the University Library and co-organized by the Plaza Cultural Macau. At the award ceremony, Japanese exchange students and UM students were invited to recite the Chinese and Japanese fragments of the Tale of Genji. (For the names of awarded students, please refer to the Chinese version.)

Regards,

University of Macau Library

