

武漢大學信息管理學院訪問澳門大學圖書館 (2020/01/15)

Wuhan University visited the University of Macau Library on 7 January 2019. Professor Ruhua Huang, the Associate Dean of the School of Information Management of Wuhan University, was received by the Dr. Wu Jianzhong (the Librarian of UM Library), Dr. Raymond Wong (Associate Librarian of UM Library) and Mr Billy Leung (Assistant Librarian of UM Library). Based on the principle of common development, complementary advantages and mutual benefits, the two parties had in-depth discussions on Library business cooperation and scientific research, and worked out plans to carry out basic and applied research, such as project cooperation in the field of scientific research information management and smart libraries; jointly organize related seminars and workshops; co-author research papers, etc.

Wuhan University's information management major has been ranked No. 1 in the country and the top 50 in the world in recent years. The cooperation between the University of Macau Library and Wuhan University will facilitate the development of talent training and scientific research.
