

UM Library participated in the ACM/IEEE Joint Conference on Digital Libraries 2020 (2020/08/05)

The ACM/IEEE Joint Conference on Digital Libraries (JCDL) was held from August 1 to 5, 2020. It was a major international forum focusing on digital libraries and associated technical, practical, and social issues. JCDL is jointly hosted by School of Information Management at Wuhan University and School of Public Administration at Northwest University every year. Due to the COVID-19 epidemic situation, the conference had taken place in a virtual conference format in 2020. As an invited speaker, Mr. Billy Leung (the Assistant University Librarian) presented a paper entitled "How to Implement Information Literacy Education in the University of Macau" on August 3, 2020.
