

Library News -- IFLA reports on "COVID-19 and the Global Library Field" (2020/08/25)

The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions released a survey report on how the global library community responded to the Coronavirus Pandemic. (<https://www.ifla.org/covid-19-and-libraries>) The report listed various best practices and successful stories of libraries around the world in fighting against the epidemic. Macao was mentioned nine times in the report, and among these nine times, specific introductions to the practice of the University of Macau Library appeared twice.

The screenshot shows the IFLA website's navigation menu on the left, including links for About IFLA, Membership, Activities and Groups, Supporters, News and Events, Publications, Standards, Annual Conference, Global Vision, and Strategy. The breadcrumb trail indicates the current page is 'Home > COVID-19 and the Global Library Field'. Below the navigation is a search bar. The main content area features the title 'COVID-19 and the Global Library Field' with language options: français | Español | 國語中文 | Pyccck | Deutsch | العربية. A banner image displays the title and a green 'UPDATES' button. A light green box below the banner states 'Last update: 20 August 2020'. The main heading for the content is 'Key Resources for Libraries in responding to the Coronavirus Pandemic'.
