

Library Discovery Service : A New Search Experience for Library Resources (28/08/2012)

Dear All,

Welcome to the New Academic Year!

In order to make your search of the Library Catalog, Library's subscribed databases, academic open-access resources and other useful publication information an easy and pleasant experience, the Library has now launched a brand-new service, which is called the Library Discovery Service.

With this search engine:

~~ you will see a Google-like search platform.

~~ you are allowed to search and instantly access the e-resources in full text.

~~ you may find the useful resources effectively ranked at the very top of your search result list by relevancy.

Come and experience the Discovery Service at <http://search.ebscohost.com/login.aspx?custid=s5101871&groupid=main&profid=eds&authtype=ip.guest>

Should you have any comments or inquiries, please feel free to send us an email to lib_ref@umac.mo.

Regards,
UM Library
